DOCTRINE OF NATIONALISM

I. Definition and description.
   A. Nationalism is the form of world order that was instituted by God in which He segregated the peoples of the world into various national entities.
   B. Webster defines a nation as a group of people who have a common language, religion, traditions, history, institutions, and customs.
   C. Each nation occupies a designated geographic locale, which has been established by God. Acts 17:26
   D. Each nation exercises rule over a segment of the human race.
   E. God sovereignly decides the fate of nations based on their volitional response to His plan. Jonah 3
   F. He controls the establishment of nations and their destruction. Isa. 44:7, 40:21-
      24, 41:2; Dan. 2:21, 36ff

II. Vocabulary.
   A. In the vast majority of usages, the Hebrew term פּוֹך (goy) or the plural פּוֹך (goyim), is translated by the word national or nations in the Old Testament.
   B. In the New Testament, the Greek term ἐθνός (ethnos) is used in the vast majority of cases.

III. The origin of the nations.
   A. The time of their origin.
      1. Prior to the events of Genesis 11, there were no nations or divisions of mankind on planet earth.
      2. The events of Genesis 11 at the tower of Babel followed quickly on the heels of the flood, which occurred in 2303-2302 BC.
      3. From the chronological notes in Genesis 11:10ff, we note that men were father ing the next generation approximately every 30-35 years.
      4. Nimrod, who was the ringleader in the events at Babel, would have easily lived within 60-100 years of the flood. Gen. 10:10
      5. This places the events of Genesis 11:1-9 in approximately 2225 BC; however, we cannot attach any firm date since there is no specific chronological data for Nimrod.
   B. The historical event.
      1. Mankind lived after the flood with a common language and there was no communication barrier of any kind. Gen. 11:1
      2. Nimrod was the instigator of the projected tower and quickly convinced oth-hers to join him.
      3. This was in direct violation of the command to repopulate the earth and to subdue it. Gen. 1:28, 9:1,7
      4. This tower was to be the focal point of their existence, and the details are rooted in the occult mysteries found in the mother/son cult. Gen. 11:4
      5. The plan was to organize and unify all men around the city, its tower, and its religion. Gen. 11:4
   C. The result.
1. Via omniscience, God knew that a universal race on the planet would eventually unify itself around a false universal religion. Rev. 13
2. He intervened in order to protect positive volition, which these people would surely eliminate. Rev. 13:7,15
3. The unifying language was eliminated and confused so that men could not understand one another. Gen. 11:6-7
4. The origin of differing languages prompted them to quit their endeavor and move into different geographical locations. Gen. 11:8
5. This resulted in the table of nations as found in Genesis 10.

IV. Satan opposes Divine Institution #4, and seeks to circumvent it via internationalism.
A. This is seen in the events of Genesis 1 and Revelation 13, as mankind becomes unified, they always move away from the truth toward evil.
B. National entities are a barrier to Satan because they prevent him from unifying people under his system of evil.
C. National is the barrier to the supremacy of evil in the world.
D. Any form of internationalism gives Satan more control; the more internationalism, the more control.
E. Yet, he continues to seduce mankind with promises of world peace and prosperity apart from Bible doctrine.
F. Peace and security are his chief selling points. IThess. 5:1-3

V. Nationalism is designed to provide internal and external security for the citizens of a nation.
A. External security comes through the military.
   1. World peace is maintained through a balance of power.
   2. The military of a nation is designed by God to protect the nation from aggression, from predator nations.
   3. The population of a nation only enjoys peace and security to the extent that their military can provide it.
   4. Doctrines of disarmament and so-called “peace treaties” with your enemies will not provide what they promise, they merely serve to weaken the nation and strengthen your enemy. Jere. 50:15
B. Internal security.
   1. Inside the nation, the criminal elements exist that seek to prey on the innocent. Prov. 1:10-19
   2. Criminals are defined as those who violate the rights of person, privacy, or property, of the community at large or of any member of the community.
   3. One legitimate function of the government is to execute justice and to protect the populace from criminal types. Deut. 16:18-20
   4. Their ability to punish crime acts as a deterrent for most normal people. Deut. 13:1, 17:13, 19:15-20
   5. The authority of the national government runs the gamut from fines, for minor offenses, to capital punishment for the most serious crimes. Gen. 9:5-6; Rom. 13:4
   6. If the national government does not execute justice for its citizens expeditiously, this reinforces the criminals in their activity. Eccles. 8:11
   7. The justice system in also established to prevent revenge tactics and operation vendetta. Num. 35:9-34
VI. The believer and the nation.
A. The believer recognizes the truth that there are no authorities that exist apart from the will of God. Rom. 13:1
B. The believer is to remain a loyal subject of the nation in which he lives. IPet. 2:12
C. This involves obedience to all the established authorities in the nation. Rom. 13:2; IPet. 2:13-15
D. The Word of God does not sanction revolution, overthrow, conspiracy, assassinations, etc. Rom. 13:2
E. The adjusted believer recognizes that while abuses exist, all authorities are ultimately placed there for his good. Rom. 13:4
F. The believer is to pray for the Establishment chain of command. ITim. 2:1-3
G. Civil disobedience is only justified in very rare cases when the nation seeks to take the place of God, and/or a higher spiritual principle is at stake. Dan. 3, 6, 11; Acts 4:16-22, 5:27-42

VII. Internationalism, the New World Order and the United Nations.
A. The new age movement/new world order is nothing more than the tower of Babel with a new vocabulary. “It is a big idea: a new world order, where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind, peace, and security, freedom and the rule of law...only the United States has both the moral standing and the means to back it up.” --President George Bush, in his State of the Union address, Los Angeles Times, February 18, 1991.
B. The United Nations is the chief exponent of this evil in our time and the driving force behind the New World Order. “Mankind’s problems can no longer be solved by national governments. What is needed is a World Government. This can best be achieved by strengthening the United Nations system. In some cases, this would mean changing the role of UN agencies from advice-giving to implementation.”--1994 UN Report.
C. The principle of free trade has not helped the citizens of our country; it was established to fulfill an entirely political agenda of a global economy.
D. In order to fulfill their objectives, several key elements have been openly advocated by the NWO, including:
1. Elimination of individual rights, resulting in complete conformity of all beliefs, values, and attitudes toward the global ideology of a one world system, to be formed around the UN model. "[We must begin] developing recommended proposals and mechanisms for improving the monitoring of the actions by the various States, Commonwealths, and territories of the United States...for their conformity with relevant treaties, the provision of relevant information for reports and other monitoring purposes, and the promotion of effective remedial mechanisms;" Bill Clinton, Executive Order 13107
2. Population control and reduction. The genocide in Rwanda, which left at least 800,000 dead in 1994, successfully reduced the targeted population by 80-90%. "What happened in Rwanda was not a spontaneous outbreak of violence. It had been under preparation for months, preparations made in the presence of two-and-a-half-thousand UN peacekeepers. UN troops had informants from within the Interhamwe [the militia group responsible for the genocide] who were telling them about the plans. This information was being sent to UN headquarters in New York." Bronwyn Adcock, UN criminal investigator.

3. Outcome-based education. The purpose of OBE is to dumb down our children so they will accept the coming totalitarian world government. This system rejects teaching math, reading, writing, and other basics of education; instead, the teachers act as coaches to reach certain outcomes, such as politically correct attitude, high self esteem, and personal management. "The real goal of OBE, it thus becomes clear...is to condition the populace to rapid adaptability to change without protest. The outcome sought is a compliant, willing, unquestioning worker used to and desiring to cooperate with his fellows as a not too smart drone working in the global industrial complex managed by the global elite."

"The traditional interests and rights of parents have been trampled upon, as educators have proceeded on the proposition that professionals know better than parents how to raise children...." William Bonner, Atty. for the Rutherford Institute.

Nancy Stable, a former high school teacher in Pennsylvania schools, describes the "values clarification" technique used in OBE. It is a method for teaching decision making that teaches a child to abandon all the traditional values and standards taught at home and church, teaches that there is no absolute right or wrong, but that each individual can choose for himself based on what is good for himself.

4. The establishment of a global religion, promoted through ecumenicalism. This is promoted through various occult sources that subscribe to the doctrine that the spiritual destiny of mankind is guided by Ascended Masters, and that these Masters are working to unfold “the Plan”. "...Do not worry if not all religions will join the United Religions organization. Many nations did not join the UN at its beginning, but later regretted it and made every effort to join. It was the same with the European Community and it will be the case with the world's religions because whoever stays out or aloof will sooner or later regret it." Robert Muller, former Assistant Secretary General of the UN.

"We believe that all religions derive their wisdom from that ultimate source. Therefore, the world's faith traditions share in common wisdom, which can be obscured by differences in religious concepts and practices." United Religions Charter.

5. The Detention plan, allowing our government and the UN powers to take over the country during a crisis. "However, Congressman Henry Gonzales (D, Texas) clarified the question of the existence of civilian detention camps. In an interview the congressman stated, "the truth is yes - you do have these stand by provisions, and the plans are here...whereby you could, in the name of stopping terrorism, evoke the military, arrest Americans and put them in detention camps."

Another important aspect of this is the so-called "REX" plan. National Security Directive 58, issued by President Reagan in 1982, allows FEMA to basically take over the country during a crisis. The constitution would officially be suspended, and martial law implemented.

6. These are merely the openly advocated plans; many such processes have been and are currently underway, some of which we are aware, but many of which we are mercifully ignorant.
